Mr. John J. Kelly
President
JEDEC Solid State Technology Association
3103 North 10th Street, Suite 240-S
Arlington, VA 22201

Dear Mr. Kelly:

Please accept my congratulations on JEDEC Solid State Technology Association's 50th Anniversary.

Since the Association's first meeting in Williamsburg, Virginia in 1958, JEDEC's commitment to facilitating the development of open standards in the rapidly-changing semiconductor industry has been exceptional. Semiconductors are essential components for products we use every day, and it is difficult to imagine our society without the advancements made by them. I commend JEDEC on its fifty years of dedication to the industry.

Best wishes for your future success and continued growth.

Sincerely,
